THE SHERIFF DEFEAT LITIGATION.

Rising Appeal From Alaska—Held Up Five Claimants—Verdict Against a Railway.

H. H. Meigs, the recently appointed postmaster of Hawaii, Wyo., has been discovered to be $50 short in his post-office accounts.

Henry C. Tye, the old man who shot and killed Deputy Sheriff Jim Bennett, near the San Joaquin bridge, Cal., on Thanksgiving night, has been captured in a mine from Idaho, by Deputy Sheriff Wagner.

A very rash strike was made Wednesday in the Pure Quill mine at Angels, Cal., about a few feet below a mine shaft. The strike was made by the Pure Quill mine at Angels, Cal., about a few feet below a mine shaft.

Tempo, Arizona, News: The passenger company in Phoenix is to commence Monday, at which time he will pay all claims against the company. It is thought that from now on a project will be pushed rapidly ahead.

Sheriff Rogers of Hedwig county, Tex., arrived at Phoenix, Arizona, Wednesday morning, from Mexico, bringing with him U. S. Normans, arrested in Mexico. Rogers estimated $400 from the Postal Telegraph company at Phoenix. He lost the money gambling in Wichita.

Five Chinese at a Chinese garden located near Little, Cal., were held up by two masked men Tuesday night, about 9 o'clock. One of the robbers stood guard with a double-barreled shotgun, while the other fired the Chinese up against the wall and helped himself to what little money they had. Then the robbers turned and fled. The Chinese gave chase and several shots were exchanged, but the robbers made good their escape.

The California supreme court has sustained the verdict of a jury in a county jury awarding Mrs. Clara Howard $10,000 damages for personal injuries received in a collision between a car of the Oakland Cable and the California Railway company and the Cincinnati and Portland Cable company. Mrs. Howard sued both companies, but the verdict of the jury was against the Oakland company alone. This is the company against which H. A. Redford secured a verdict of $11,000 a few days ago, for causing the death of his wife.

In the case of the Idaho Colonization & Irrigation company vs. Howard Meigs, in regard to the temporary injunction placed upon the sale of the Idaho ditch at the instance of the court at Caldwell, Idaho, on Wednesday, it is thought that counsel for Meigs would have to make a very strong case to get the injunction dissolved, and that in order to protect the interests of a large number of farmers under the ditch, it might eventually be desirable to make them parties to the litigation. It is possible that the complications may be settled before the next term court.

The Alaska Gold and Silver Mining company has won its case in the United States circuit court of appeal in California in the decision of a jury in the United States district court at San Francisco. The suit in question is that of the Alaska Gold and Silver Mining company against J. U. Brady, executor of the estate of T. C. D. Ryan, deceased. The controversy is over a mining claim known as the Cascade Hill claim on Harney island, now owned by Brady. Ryan, who owned the claim, was killed by Brady's possession of it and Brady brought suit. He won and the company appealed.

Tren and Joan Gonzalez, two brothers, merchants, were killed at the G-12 Cross mining camp, Cal., thirty miles west of Yuma. The tragedy occurred Monday evening in a saloon conducted by Jack Gonzalez, who is a direct being a promoter named Johnson Handolph. Mulachy, a miner, and the Gonzalez brothers were at the saloon drinking when Handolph walked into the saloon. Mulachy, in an altercation with Handolph, accused him of shooting a man out on the street some time ago. The suit in question is that of the Alaska Gold and Silver Mining company against J. U. Brady, executor of the estate of T. C. D. Ryan, deceased. The controversy is over a mining claim known as the Cascade Hill claim on Harney island, now owned by Brady. Ryan, who owned the claim, was killed by Brady's possession of it and Brady brought suit. He won and the company appealed.
